

Why choose Goplasticpallets.com?

At Goplasticpallets.com we stock the widest range of plastic pallets, pallet boxes and small containers in the UK. Now 20 years in business our range keeps growing – so why go anywhere else?

Our team

More than 200 years combined experience in logistics means our team is skilled in matching customers with the best product for their application. If we are unable to find a perfect match, we will work with you and our partners to customise a solution, just for you!

Our partners

Sole distribution agreements with Europe's largest plastic pallet and box manufacturers means we can offer products from a very large and competitive range. And, in most cases, deliver direct from stock in three days or less!

Our mission

We are on a mission to help create more sustainable supply chains by providing long lasting, reusable plastic pallets and boxes, and ensuring they are responsibly recycled at the end of their use through our recycling scheme www.goplasticpallets.com/recycling

Our customers

We are accessible to everyone, no matter which market they operate in. Just some of the sectors we serve include:

- Automation
- Engineering
- Exporters
- Food & Drink
- Pharmaceutical
- Retail
